Wallace Endorsed by the PBA and Ironworkers Local Union No. 6

BUFFALO, NY – Assembly Candidate Monica Wallace received endorsements yesterday from the Buffalo Police Benevolent Association (PBA) and the International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Ironworkers Local No. 6.

Wallace is running for the 143rd District seat currently held by Conservative Angela Wozniak, who is not seeking reelection. Wallace is a respected attorney, a faculty member at UB Law School, and a former federal law clerk.

The endorsements from the PBA and Ironworkers Local No. 6 join prior endorsements from the Democratic Party, the Working Families Party, the Women's Equality Party, the Stonewall Democrats, and NYSUT. Wallace has also received the support of notable public figures, including former Assembly Majority Leader Paul Tokasz, who represented the residents of the 143rd District for 17 years.

The 143rd District includes the Towns of Cheektowaga and Lancaster and the Villages of Depew, Lancaster, and Sloan.
