Women's TAP Fund Endorses Monica Wallace for State Assembly

BUFFALO, NY – The Women's TAP Fund announced today that it has endorsed attorney Monica Wallace for the New York State Assembly, 143rd District. The seat is currently held by Conservative Angela Wozniak, who announced in May that she will not seek re-election.

"Monica Wallace is an exceptionally well qualified and committed candidate who will serve the residents of the 143rd Assembly District with dignity and integrity," said Ruth D. Bryant, Chair of the Women's TAP Fund Steering Committee. "The Women's TAP Fund is proud to endorse this outstanding woman who shares our values."

Wallace, a faculty member at UB Law School and a former federal law clerk, said: "I am honored to have the support of an organization that is dedicated to electing more women to public office. I look forward to being a strong advocate for women, and all of my constituents, in Albany."

The TAP endorsement follows endorsements by the Democratic Party, the Working Families Party, the Women's Equality Party, the Stonewall Democrats, NYSUT, the Buffalo Police Benevolent Association, and Ironworkers Local No. 6.
